MEMBERSHIP Application & Renewal Form; LINCOLN ROWING CENTRE.

(must be filled in by everybody using LRC equipment)

New Member procedure;

EVERYBODY who uses Lincoln Rowing Centre equipment is required to fill out a membership form BEFORE taking to the water.

Ideally the completed form should be handed back to a committee member for checking, but in their absence an established member should deputise.

An initial donation of £5.00 is requested to cover initial sessions and a note of monies received should be made on the membership form. It is preferred that cash is not left with completed forms, please can the receiving member pass it onto either Treasurer, Captain or Secretary and ensure the Secretary knows it has been received.

Completed forms should be left in the Membership form file.

After THREE sessions the applicant should make the decision whether they intend to pursue the sport of rowing with Lincoln Rowing Centre and appropriate membership fees will become due as per the scales below.

Payment by cheque made payable to "Lincoln Rowing Centre" is the preferred method and cheques may be left (ideally in an envelope) in the membership folder. The treasurer should be informed in writing via the same folder if an alternative method of payment is wanted.

After receipt of fees and approval by the committee at the next scheduled meeting the new member will be informed of their acceptance via the e-mail address on the application form by the Secretary.

Membership fees from April 2011

Full member £130 / year from 1st April (£11/month if pro-rata)

Student & anybody in FT education (i.e. including juniors)
 £90 / year from 1st April (£7.50/month if pro-rata)

Note Lincoln Univ students pay £50 of this through the Univ; an additional £40 allows full club access from September to June incl.

New starter £5 for first month, then as above

Coxing only member £30 / year

Temporary Student Holiday Membership £30

Rack fees £90 / boat from 1st April (only with full annual membership)

Pro-rata is based upon a minimum expectation of 3 months membership fees.
